From the President

If we cannot attract enough interested people to be on the Committee and organise functions in the forthcoming year, it might prove necessary to wind up our group. For this reason the Annual General Meeting on the 29th of April in Heywood Park will be critical to the ongoing viability of our Association.

Since its inception, our Old Scholars' Association has maintained a strong membership and thanks to the work of dedicated committees throughout its existence, a continuing series of successful activities. No Member of your committee wants to see the Old Scholars Group dissolve. Neither however, do we wish to see the fruits of the labours of so many wither on the vine.

Some of our Committee Members have given sterling service since the inception of the reconstituted organisation. Assisted by others, who have also given years of service, we have always managed to keep going. We are indebted to them and thank them for their contributions. In time, all things change. Some of our mainstays now find that their personal circumstances have altered such that they can no longer continue their Committee contribution. This year there will therefore be a number of very big shoes to fill.

While the old "Tech" ceased as an entity some time ago now, the youngest of the Old Scholars are in their early '50's. Such an age profile would suggest that the course of the Association has some decades left to run, but it cannot continue unless some interest is shown through some of our "younger" old scholars shouldering some of the Committee work.

The easy way is always to think that it doesn't matter or to let others do the work. Too often, however, when it is too late, we find that we've lost something which had greater value than we first thought. If you wish/are available to help, please contact one of the Committee by email, phone or fax so that you can be nominated at the next AGM. If you cannot manage to do that, turn up, put up your hand and you'll be welcomed as a new member of the team.

I conclude by thanking, both personally, and on behalf of every member of our Association, not only those who are retiring, but all Office Bearers and Committee members for their efforts in the last twelve months.

If we want a bright future, each of us must play whatever part we can, in making it happen.

Mark Brindal
President

Some things change,Others remain the same

(This is an extract from a longer article provided by GIHS Principal, Bob Knight. It will appear in full in the magazine)

Glenunga International High School now has over 1300 students from 60+ countries, and a large waiting list.

A highlight of Glenunga's internationalism has been the growth of IB (International Baccalaureate) programs, for both middle years and senior students. The IB is arguably the world's finest premier international curriculum, studied by students in 1500+ schools in more than 100 countries; but our kids have performed exceptionally well by world standards, achieving an average Tertiary Entrance (TER) score of more than 93 over the last 15 years - well above world average.

Academic excellence was one of the reasons for Glenunga gaining International Accreditation through the Council of International Schools in 2001 - one of the first schools in Australia to do so.

The school provides IGNITE (gifted education) programs, and the deliberate strategy of supporting effort, application, work and achievement from all students, whether in IGNITE classes or not, have been highly successful in shaping an enquiry based learning environment focussed on excellence, which again models that of "Tech".

Glenunga is now regarded internationally as a 'World Class' School. It has been so acknowledged, through accreditation by ECIS (European Council of International Schools), CIS (Council of International Schools), and CIASa (Council of International Accredited Schools (Australasia)).

Its reputation is as a school of excellence and achievement; a school with a wonderful spirit and heart; a school of both tradition and innovation. Now, does that sound familiar?

The Website

The website at www.athsos.com.au is going strong. I urge you all to look at it periodically because it will provide you with the latest information on the Old Scholars Association - Newsletters, current news, and forms for renewing membership and changing details, including addresses will be included. This is your website. If you have any suggestions for improvement, we will be glad to hear and consider them for periodic upgrades. If you or your company would like to be an official sponsor of the website, please contact Peter Keen on 8388 3626. Sponsorship would include having your company logo etc. on the site.
